REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Obtained jury verdict in excess of $1.35 million against client's treasurer on the basis of conversion and fraud despite limited documentation due to efforts by treasurer, who controlled the books of the company, to conceal his actions.

Defended appraiser in lawsuit seeking over $1,000,000 in damages in federal court based on allegations of fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, conversion and conspiracy; the Court dismissed the case without a trial based on Mr. Grekin's motion.

Represented single-asset real estate Chapter 11 debtor in proceeding to determine whether the debtor's plan of reorganization was feasible, prevailed in evidentiary hearing despite debtor's inability as of the date of the hearing to make payments to the lender going forward as required by the Bankruptcy Code, and assisted in obtaining subsequent favorable settlement with lender.

Counsel for federal equity receiver over operating manufacturer with $20 million in annual gross sales, advised on continuance of operations, marketing, sales, and prosecution of potential claims.

Defense of real estate developers in multiple actions by lenders based on guaranties and promissory notes, negotiated settlements reducing debt by over $10 million without permitting any collection proceedings against clients.

Counsel to a large pension trust fund in the foreclosure of a $10 million resort development in northern Michigan, successfully defending against counterclaims alleging lender liability and establishing priority of the trust's mortgage over multiple construction liens.

Brought adversary proceeding as special counsel to Chapter 7 trustee against corporate parent of bankrupt automotive supplier based on preferences, fraudulent transfers and substantive consolidation which resulted in a seven-figure settlement and the likely distribution to all unsecured creditors of 100 cents on the dollar for all approved claims.

In an action on behalf of a toolmaker which contracted with a now bankrupt tier two automotive supplier to build tools for a tier one supplier, where typical mold builder lien claims were potentially defective, brought action against tier one automotive supplier based on novel agency theory; settled for about 60 cents on the dollar.

Represented Chapter 7 trustee in various matters related to the liquidation of the assets of a nursing home, including but not limited to the evaluation of and drafting objections to claims, and providing counsel regarding complex adversary proceeding prosecuted by special counsel.

Represented business owner in preparing and filing a Chapter 7 bankruptcy proceeding, successfully negotiated settlement with the Chapter 7 trustee in which business owner was able to retain ownership of business, which provided business owner with employment and salary, all while discharging substantial unsecured debts.

Defended prominent local businessman in lawsuit brought by lender based on alleged defaults under loan documents, brought counterclaim against lender for conversion of cashier's checks, and negotiated settlement whereby client received payment from lender.
